

Garden & Associates Transforms Into Intelligere™

PRESS RELEASE JUL 15, 2016 13:30 EDT

Company introduces new mission to bridge the communication gap, uphold quality of care and improve the overall experience with a full suite of language solutions.

Plymouth, MN, July 15, 2016 (Newswire.com) - Garden & Associates, a market leader in providing top quality comprehensive interpreting and translation language solutions, announced today that it has rebranded its company to Intelligere™ Solutions. The word 'intelligere' is the Latin word for 'understand', which is at the core of the company's mission.

"Our goal as an organization is to bridge the communication gap, uphold the quality of care and ultimately be an extension of our clients' organization by seamlessly fulfilling their interpreting and translation needs. When we remove language barriers between patients and providers, quality of care improves, patient satisfaction scores increase, and our clients improve their total cost of care and return on investment," said Sharon Stein, Intelligere's Chief Executive Officer.

Intelligere offers full-service interpreting and translation solutions including:

- Onsite Interpreting: Onsite spoken language interpreting for over 100 languages and American Sign Language (ASL)
- Telephone Interpreting: Access telephone interpreting for over 200 languages via a toll free number and access code 24/7
- Video Remote Interpreting: Video interpreting services for 17 languages. Spanish and ASL interpreting services are offered 24/7 with connection within minutes on any computer or tablet
- Document Translation: Full-service translation solutions for collateral and documents from certified translators; fully translated documents delivered within 2-7 business days

"When you provide ways for patients to be able to understand, you are improving their experience and the quality of care they receive."

SHARON STEIN, CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER, INTELLIGERE SOLUTIONS

Intelligere unveiled a new website at <http://www.intelligeresolutions.com> that reflects its new look, logo and tagline along with information about the company and full suite of solutions.

Intelligere Solutions is a portfolio company of Generation Growth Capital Fund II, LP (GGC). Cory Nettles, Managing Director of GGC, commented, "Our rebranding to Intelligere represents our focused efforts to improve quality and be the best language and interpreting services company in our markets. We are very excited about the future of this company."

"The role of interpreters is critical to patient care and the entire industry is in need of a transformation. At Intelligere, we're excited to be leading the way and optimistic about starting a movement that, along with clients and industry experts, will pave the way for much-needed change," commented Mrs. Stein.
